TESTIMONIALS:

Yale, Mich., May 25, 1895.
Gentlemen:
Your Milwaukee binder, I bought in 1893, is one of the easiest handled and lightest draft machines I ever saw or used. I cut 60 acres last year with one small team. I would have no other kind. It cut a field of grain that a Deering Machine left.
Yours Truly,
J. A. VINCENT.

Gentlemen:
I purchased a Milwaukee binder and mower last season and am well pleased with them. They are the lightest on horses, easiest to handle and do the best work of any machines I ever owned. Whoever says that I am sorry for purchasing the Milwaukee is telling an absolute falsehood.
JERRY JOHNSON,
Brockway, Mich.

I would say to the people of Yale and vicinity that I am now located at E. E. In connection I will carry a very complete line of watches, clocks, jewelry, etc., which I will sell very cheap. My room is yet small but hope in the near future to have room enough to put in a fine and complete line of everything carried in a first-class jewelry store. Remember the place. Very Respectfully,

Those wanting—

Watches, Clocks, Jewelry and Silverware

Should call and get prices before buying elsewhere.

Watch, Clock, and Jewelry
Repairing done in a first-class manner and warranted. ENGRAVING A SPECIALTY.

Mr. Foster worked for C. H. Niggebaum up to the time he sold to H. Doelle & Son and worked for this firm two years.

The Art Amateur for May has two charming color plates—"The Watering Place," by J. Peyrol Bonheur, and "Decorative Groups," after Boucher. There are the usual eight large pages of practical Working Designs for Woodcarving, Photography, China Painting and Needlework. The number itself is especially one for the young illustrator. Besides a lesson on "Drawing for Reproduction," by Ernest Knauft, there are many fine examples of the masterly work of Daniel Vierge. The frontispiece is very interesting, being a pen drawing by Thure De Thulstrup reproduced by the "half-tone" process. Besides these E. M. Halliwell's "Flower Drawing in Pen-and-Ink," with numerous illustrations, is still continued. Other articles are "Figure Painting," "Land-scapes Painting," "China Painting," "Talks on Embroidery," "Flowers and Plants in the Home," and how to have "A Cozy Sitting-Room and Dining-Room Combined." The number abounds with spring flowers—daffodils, violets, jonquils, syringas, tulips, and lilacs. In "My Note Book" the editor, while praising those pictures which deserve attention, unflinchingly denounces certain "old masters" which he finds on sale at some of the well-known galleries in New York. Price, 35 cents. MONTAGUE MARKS, Publisher, 23 UNION SQUARE, NEW YORK.
